

Call for Art

Call for art submissions to be published in the Art of Conservation
Endangered Species Day May 16, 2014

Endangered Species Day was created to encourage understanding of the many plants and animals whose survival is threatened and inspire efforts to preserve them.

Chugach Arts Council supports that endeavor and invite you to be a part of that. Chugach Arts Council is publishing a full size, soft cover art book highlighting the wide variety of species that are endangered.

The purpose of the project is not only to bring awareness to the importance of protecting and preserving our endangered mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians, fish, plants & invertebrates, but also to inspire creativity and as fund raising project for the Chugach Arts Council.

The book will be released by early May in time for Endangered Species Day and will be available for purchase online.

Who: Artists or Artist Hopefuls . . . ANYWHERE

What: Original art depicting at least one of many endangered species.

- Does not need to be a new creation
- Does not need to be scientifically accurate, artistic representations are welcome
- Can be ANY medium, just send photo of work

Artist will donate use of image for the purpose of this publication and promotional pieces for such in print or web.

At least 20 artists will be selected to be included in this volume(s), the decisions of the review committee are final. If your work is selected to be included you will receive the following benefits.

- Your work will be published and promoted to a wide audience around the country
- Each artist be identified, acknowledged and will have a short bio (50 words or less) & website info
- You will know that you are supporting the preservation of our endangered species
- You will be a part of supporting the arts in the Chugach region.

Deadline for submission is : April 1, 2014
